

XIII World Forestry Congress
18–23 October 2009, Buenos Aires, Argentina

Forests, human health and well-being: findings of IUFRO's recent science initiatives

19 October, 2009, at 12.45–14.15 (lunch boxes available)
Room NOTRO, Blue Pavilion

Organised by IUFRO Task Forces:
Forests and Human Health, Traditional Forest Knowledge, Improving the Lives of People in Forests

Programme:

Chair: Prof. Hannu Raitio, Director General, Finnish Forest Research Institute

Assessment of human health dimensions in forests and forestry
Dr. Jari Parviainen, Finnish Forest Research Institute, Finland

Forests, human health and the role of traditional forest-related knowledge
Dr. John Parrotta, USDA Forest Service, USA

Improving the lives of people in forests
Dr. Peter Cronkleton, Center for International Forestry Research CIFOR, Indonesia

Discussion

Contact information:
jari.parviainen@metla.fi (tel. +358 50 391 3010), jparrotta@fs.fed.us, P.CRONKLETON@CGIAR.ORG

International Union of Forest Research Organizations, IUFRO, www.iufro.org